Headline:
Late sunshine then a clear, chilly night. Cloudier by dawn.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any showers dying out this evening with plenty of late sunshine. The rest of the night will stay dry with a frost in places but high cloud will gradually build towards dawn. Freshening southeasterly wind across the southwest later. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Saturday:
After a dry start cloud and rain will extend northeast through the morning. Becoming dry through the afternoon but staying rather cloudy. Cold southeasterly winds, strong along the coast. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
An unsettled few days with scattered showers, occasionally heavy. Feeling much warmer than of late in any afternoon sunshine.
